<https://zoom.us/j/5307522013> AATC Virtual Front Desk 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. M-F

AATC is committed to providing online academic support for students through Spring quarter. The team of Specialists, Tutors, Student Assistants, and Staff are working to provide the services students have come to depend on to support academic success. Please share this email widely to help undergraduate students learn about academic support services available during Spring 2020.

Academic Assistance and Tutoring Centers (AATC) provides academic support to students enrolled in Biology, Chemistry, Economics, Mathematics, Physics, Statistics, and Writing Across the Disciplines. Our professional instructional staff offer classes, workshops, and office hours, and individual writing appointments. To support our services, 220 undergraduate tutors will provide individual tutoring sessions in over 40 math and science courses and 200 courses in writing across the disciplines.

- Pre-Classes are available for students to prepare for calculus and physics courses. Concurrent courses are also available to support students currently enrolled in math and physics courses.
- Workshops are available in chemistry, math and physics.
- Individual writing appointments are available for undergraduate students.
- Aggie Gramma Guide is an online writing resource for everyone.
- Individual tutoring appointments for students to ask questions and practice problems in

BIS 101-105	CHEM 2ABC, 8AB, 118ABC
ECON 1A, 1B, 101	ENG 102, 103, 105	EME 106
MATH 12, 16ABC, 17ABC, 21ABCD	PHY 7ABC, 9ABC	STATS 13, 100

- Online resources are available for students to watch videos, see practice problems, and course notes available through the specialist websites.

Additional UC Davis Academic Department Resources (Not AATC Tutors)

The following schedules are for resources provided by individual academic departments and are not staffed by AATC Tutors. For information about these programs, please contact the department directly.

Chemical Engineering: tutoring calendar online for Spring 2020

Economics: tutoring calendar online for Spring 2020

Mathematics: Virtual Zoom CalcRoom online for Spring 2020

UWP, Entry Level Writing: Peer Educator Appointments online for Spring 2020

Internship and Career Center (ICC)

The ICC is offering virtual services to students. They understand the day-to-day experience is quite different this quarter, and are mindful of student concerns regarding anxiety and staying motivated. They are here to help them stay on track with their internship and career goals by continuing to offer:

- Drop-in advising with peer advisors on Monday-Friday from 11:00 am – 1:00 pm (for undergraduates only). Visit our website to obtain the Zoom ID for drop-in advising.
- Career advising appointments over phone and video (Zoom) for current students and recent alumni (within one year of graduation). View this how-to guide for scheduling online appointments.
- Core workshops and other events. View the workshop and event schedule in Handshake and register to obtain the Zoom meeting ID numbers for Spring workshops!
- NEW: We are producing 2-5 minute career advising videos, with topics including “Job Searching in Uncertain Times” and “Acing the Video Interview.”
- Bonus: Check out Handshake’s blog on getting hired remotely (no sign-in required).

They encourage you to continue your job search for summer internships and post-graduation employment. View these virtual employment opportunities and check back at icc.ucdavis.edu where they will be regularly updating our resources to support your job and internship search during this time.

Powering Aggies Award (Deadline: TOMORROW)

The Powering Aggies Award, a SMUD endowed fund, is able to provide an annual Scholar Award and internship. In addition to a paid internship, the 2020-21 disbursement for the Powering Aggies Award is $1430.

Details, timing and eligibility requirements can be found in the Qualtrics application. The deadline for the application is April 15, 2020 and awards will be announced on April 22.
