ESCSI 2020-21 John Ries Scholarship (Attached)

The Expanded Shale, Clay, and Slate Institute (ESCSI) is pleased to announce the John Ries Scholarship in Academic Year 2020-21 for undergraduate and graduate students in civil engineering
The ESCSI is the international trade association for manufacturers of rotary kiln-produced expanded shale, expanded clay and expanded slate (ESCS) lightweight aggregate. ESCSI promotes the extensive use of rotary kiln-produced lightweight aggregate in the lightweight concrete masonry and structural lightweight concrete markets, as well as use in asphalt, geotechnical and other applications. Based on research and development, educational material is disseminated to all phases of the construction industry. The association works closely with other technical organizations, such as ACI and ASTM, to maintain product quality, life-safety and professional integrity throughout the construction industry and related building code bodies.

Applications are accepted as self-nominations by undergraduate or graduate students in civil engineering or closely related majors who are enrolled in fall 2020 and will return to school for spring 2021. All applications shall be postmarked no later than October 1, 2020. Applications should include the following items:

1. The application form signed by the applicant (electronic signature is acceptable). This form is also available as Google Form at https://forms.gle/xU9ykvsEbjZ4pbcx9.

2. A one-page statement of qualifications by student describing motivation in ESCS materials; academic and career goals related to ESCS applications; planned research- or practice-based projects involving ESCS materials; and/or the value of this scholarship to achieve goals or complete projects; (letter-size, single-spaced, 1” margin, font size 12, doc or pdf)

3. Unofficial transcripts indicating the current GPA of 2.75 or higher (pdf);

4. A confidential letter of recommendation by a faculty; signed, dated, and sealed; or sent directly via email by the faculty with the subject “John Ries Scholarship”.

Please send completed application and attachments, as well as any question to following address and mention “John Ries Scholarship” in the subject line of emails, or back of mail packages:

Conference
31st Annual Undergraduate Research, Scholarship & Creative Activities Conference...2020 Conference VIP Contest - Win Phenomenal Prizes
Are you interested to see amazing undergraduate research projects and win prizes?
You are invited to the 31st Annual Undergraduate Research, Scholarship & Creative Activities
Conference on May 7-8, 2020. This year we are hosting a virtual conference with over 500 student presenters representing a wide range of research areas! Register to attend the virtual conference to watch video presentations showcasing research projects from undergraduate students at UC Davis. If you are not already involved with research, come to learn about projects and make connections to pursue your own research experience. All members of the UC Davis community are invited to attend.

As an extra incentive to encourage participation for our first virtual conference, we are excited to announce the 2020 Conference VIP (Very Important Participant) Contest! You do not have to be a conference presenter to be a VIP! All currently enrolled UC Davis undergraduate and graduate students who attend the virtual conference can compete to win VIP awards for their active participation viewing and commenting on pre-recorded video presentations on May 7-8. (Presenters are already registered and also eligible to win VIP awards!)

There will be 20 VIP award winners, with awards ranging in value from $200-$500. See VIP Conference Rules and Regulations for complete details. In addition we will also have a raffle with 20 prizes!

To enter the VIP contest, register with the URC by May 6th at 12:00pm and then you will receive a personalized email invitation directly from GoReact.com by May 6th at 5:00 pm to access the virtual conference platform during the conference dates from May 7-8, 2020. (Please check your spam/junk folder if you do not see an email from GoReact.com in your inbox by May 6 at 5:00 pm. If you are a presenter, you already have access and will not receive this email.) This email invitation contains a personalized link to join our GoReact site and may only be used once by the recipient.

To compete in the VIP Contest, all you have to do is attend the virtual conference on May 7-8 and watch at least 3 videos and provide comments or ask questions to the presenter for each video watched. The more videos you watch and comment on, the more likely you will be to win a VIP award! Conference attendees (including presenters) can begin watching and commenting on research video presentations from Thursday, May 7th at 12:01am until Friday, May 8th at 11:59pm PST. We will also have raffle prizes!

Register now to see amazing research video presentations on May 7-8, 2020 and become a conference VIP!

Resources and Workshops

Student Health and Wellness Resource Sheet (Attached)

Student Health and Counseling Services’ (SHCS) Health Equity Committee compiled a list of health and wellness resources for students, which includes how to access care, self-care resources and information for specific communities (attached).

Preparing for remote instruction this Summer

Many graduate students work as associate instructors during summer sessions, and summer 2020 brings additional challenges with the transition to fully remote instruction. Join our multidisciplinary Teaching Assistant Consultants for a panel-style webinar on designing and adapting summer courses for remote instruction. This session will include plenty of time for participant questions.

Date & Time:
- Friday, May 1st 12:00-1:00pm
- Tuesday, May 19th 4:00-5:00pm

Location: Zoom
