31st Annual Undergraduate Research, Scholarship & Creative Activities Conference

Are you interested to see amazing undergraduate research projects and win prizes?

You are invited to the 31st Annual Undergraduate Research, Scholarship & Creative Activities Conference on May 7-8, 2020. This year the URC is hosting a virtual conference with over 500 student presenters representing a wide range of research areas! Register to attend the virtual conference to watch video presentations showcasing research projects from undergraduate students at UC Davis. If you are not already involved with research, come to learn about projects and make connections to pursue your own research experience. All members of the UC Davis community are invited to attend.

As an extra incentive to encourage participation for our first virtual conference, they are excited to announce the 2020 Conference VIP (Very Important Participant) Contest! You do not have to be a conference presenter to be a VIP! All currently enrolled UC Davis undergraduate and graduate students who attend the virtual conference can compete to win VIP awards for their active participation viewing and commenting on pre-recorded video presentations on May 7-8. (Presenters are already registered and also eligible to win VIP awards!)

There will be 20 VIP award winners, with awards ranging in value from $200-$500. See VIP Conference Rules and Regulations for complete details. In addition we will also have a raffle with 20 prizes!

To enter the VIP contest, register with the URC by May 6th at 12:00pm and then you will receive a personalized email invitation directly from GoReact.com by May 6th at 5:00 pm to access the virtual conference platform during the conference dates from May 7-8, 2020. (Please check your spam/junk folder if you do not see an email from GoReact.com in your inbox by May 6 at 5:00 pm. If you are a presenter, you already have access and will not receive this email.) This email invitation contains a personalized link to join our GoReact site and may only be used once by the recipient.

To compete in the VIP Contest, all you have to do is attend the virtual conference on May 7-8 and watch at least 3 videos and provide comments or ask questions to the presenter for each video watched. The more videos you watch and comment on, the more likely you will be to win a VIP award! Conference attendees (including presenters) can begin watching and commenting on research video presentations from Thursday, May 7th at 12:01am until Friday, May 8th at 11:59pm PST. We will also have raffle prizes!

Register now to see amazing research video presentations on May 7-8, 2020 and become a conference VIP!

Free Programming Tutoring (Python and MATLAB)

Please note that during high traffic times, tutors may use the "wait room" feature in zoom so that attendees will receive the personalized attention our program aims to provide. Participants in the waiting room will be admitted in the order that they arrived.

Internship and Career Center (ICC) Events & Resources

- Need a part-time or temporary job right now? Check our <https://icc.ucdavis.edu/quick-hire> list. These are local/regional opportunities in which hiring is taking place quickly to provide essential services (biotech, logistics, health care services, child care, etc.) during the national health crisis. They are updating as they hear of more opportunities.
- Schedule phone and video advising appointments via Handshake! They are now offering late afternoon and evening appointments.
- Interviewing can be stressful already – and now interviews are being conducted in an on-line format. Yikes! Here's a short video our team created this week to help you "Ace the On-line Interview"! You got this!

- Spring quarter ICC Workshops will be delivered via Zoom. Register for these events in Handshake to obtain the meeting number. They are inviting employers to join and share their tips. This is an additional way to connect with employers and continue to build your network!
- Companies are still recruiting! Search jobs and internships via Handshake.
- The Spring Internship and Career Fair has been cancelled in adherence with physical distancing mandates. Stay tuned, they are working diligently to create a virtual career fair. For now, they have left the list of companies registered for the Spring Fair live so you can see the firms interested in hiring Aggies. Many of these firms are still hiring.
- Stay up-to-date by visiting our website. They are adding content and resources regularly to meet student's needs.

Masters in Engineering Program

The Master of Engineering program is still accepting applications until June 1st, and they are waiving the GRE for the remainder of this application cycle. For more information, please see the attached flyer.
