GRAD SCHOOL

WINTER 2023: Gearing Up for Graduate School (ENG 098)

When: Wednesdays at 125 Olson Hall

Time: 12:10 – 1:00PM

1 unit Pass/No Pass

CRN: 23198

Thinking about graduate school? Want to know more? Gearing Up for Graduate School (GUGS) is a weekly seminar open to engineering undergraduate students considering graduate study.

Students will learn about the role of graduate study in academic research and career development. Typical components of a graduate school application – personal statements, letters of recommendation, exams, etc. – will be discussed. The writing assigned for the seminar will prepare students to draft appropriate content for their own application materials.
