Virtual SPA DAY
Self-care, Perseverance, Awareness: Deliberately Affirming Yourself
Saturday, September 26th | 10:00 AM-2:00 PM (PT)

Virtual SPA DAY is a Saturday event to promote health, wellness, and provide a virtual community for Black doctoral women in STEM.

SPA DAY brings together researchers and therapists who will discuss and provide coping strategies for three phenomena:

- Strong Black Woman: Expectations and pressure of managing multiple roles
- Stereotype Threat: Being at risk of confirming a negative stereotype about one’s social group
- Imposter Syndrome: Feelings of inadequacy that persist despite evident success

Registration Deadline: Friday, September 18th
(or until spots are filled)

Registration Link: https://tinyurl.com/2020SPADAY

Guest Speakers

Dr. J. Yasmine Butler
Assistant Professor
Sam Houston State University
& University of Cincinnati

Dr. Cheryl Giscombe
School of Nursing
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Dr. Ameena Kemavor
Senior Director Student Support and Advocacy
Columbus State Community College

This program is sponsored by The Niela Project and is based upon work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant No. 1648332 and 1647986

Learn more about The Niela Project: https://sites.uci.edu/TheNielaProject