INVOLVEMENT

Join the UC Davis CCC MasterClass Program (Includes Free Subscription)

The Cross Cultural Center has been a recipient of a grant program with 500 free annual memberships to MasterClass. The goal is to provide opportunities for self-directed learning that will encourage identity exploration and cultural humility. This work includes encouraging compassionate community spaces that provide opportunities for critical consciousness in the choices we make as a community. A hope is that these learning opportunities will enhance UC Davis Students' campus and post-graduation experience.

Interest Form
Apply to receive a free subscription till August 2023 after completing the required CCC MasterClass online course.

Public Roads Student Writing Competition!

Public Roads is proud to announce its first Student Writing Competition, designed to encourage high school and college students interested in or actively pursuing STEM majors to demonstrate their knowledge by writing an article that relates to the transportation industry.
The competition aims to highlight students' capabilities and acumen in the world of transportation technology and research while giving them early insight into the process of writing scholarly articles and publications.
